Two girls ain't too many, three girls yeah that's plenty
Fk the story telling st is my world you just in it
So I push it to the limit, credit cards ain't got no limits
They're as black as the niggas I chill with
We can go anywhere if you with it
The purchase... last thing I need tonight is a wife
Let's be free to do as we like
Supermario with this pipe
And bring your friends too
Show me all the thangs that you into
And know we can do, can't loose
I told her that she ain't my only girl I might have a few
But I respect her mind so I'd rather tell the truth
And nah I ain't no player, but fk it I'm single
She said that she respect it and she like it that I keep it 100
Keep it 100
Cause it's what them other niggas don't do
Keep it 100, keep it 100
You ain't gotta lie to kick it
Keep it 100, keep it 100
Cause it's what them other niggas won't do
Keep it 100, keep it 100
And baby you ain't gotta lie to kick it
If you keep it 100

I got my mind on my money, money on my mind
I've been out here chasing millions while these snakers chase mines
Don't know where they find the time
To be fronting and be lying
Like these women don't know better when they more clever than ever
She got 4 brothers know a lot of niggas
Ain't... they just cool with her
They putting her up on game, show a... lames
I fs with her, she fs with me
She pocks it up and I put it down
Harder choice she chose me, probably that I'm so rich

I told her that she ain't my only girl I might have a few

But I respect her mind so I'd rather tell the truth
And nah I ain't no player, but fk it I'm single

She said that she respect it and she like it that I keep it 100

Keep it 100

Cause it's what them other niggas don't do

Keep it 100, keep it 100

You ain't gotta lie to kick it

Keep it 100, keep it 100

Cause it's what them other niggas won't do

Keep it 100, keep it 100

And baby you ain't gotta lie to kick it

If you keep it 100

Tired of the games all these niggas playing

While you messing with these lames,

Huh, you act like you don't know no better

But girl I know you know know better

So take the time and recognize it

Girl I'm the one that you need

Girl I be more that qualified to give you just like you see

No you don't gotta worry about it let's keep it all the way real

No time for the coughing just keep it 100

I told her that she ain't my only girl I might have a few

But I respect her mind so I'd rather tell the truth

And nah I ain't no player, but fk it I'm single

100

Keep it 100

Cause it's what them other niggas don't do

Keep it 100, keep it 100

You ain't gotta lie to kick it

Keep it 100, keep it 100

Cause it's what them other niggas won't do

Keep it 100, keep it 100

And baby you ain't gotta lie to kick it

If you keep it 100

Keep it 100
