Help your brother man
Help your sister

Buju lend an helping hand to your brother
If you see him standing out in the cold
And would you lend an helping hand to your sister
Stop her from falling down in a hole
Would you sell your mother for silver
Or would you sell your father for gold
If someone should make you an offer
And that offer satisfy your soul

Never get caught up between two worlds
Make that decision, the choice is your
The things you do, believe in no one else knows
Man must be free like a river that flows

What into darkness must comes to light
Them two wrong, could never make a right
Like that green grass that you see grow
So small tributarys make great river flow

Lend a hand to the brother
If you see him standing in the cold
you fe lend an helping hand to a sister
Stop her from falling down in a hole
Neva you sell your mother for silver
Neva sell your father for gold
If someone should make you an offer
And that offer satisfy your soul

Man dreams and aspirations
These days drifting away
Plagued by your constant wants and needs
Friends turn worst enemies
I do not know
What else to say
All I lament and pray,
Is I hope that they see the right way

Lend a hand to the brother
If you see him standing in the cold

You fe lend a hand to the sister
Stop her from falling down in a hole
Neva you sell your mother for silver
Neva sell your father for gold
If someone should make you an offer
And that offer satisfy your soul

Granny used to say, cow na go know the use of 'I'm tail
till it's gone,
Sit and deh laughing and jeering them own brethren to scorn
Granny used to say, cow na go know the use of 'I'm tail
till it's gone,
Sit and deh laughing and jeering them own brethren

You fi lend an hand to your brother
You fi lend a hand to your sister
A mi say neva sell your mother
A mi say neva sell your father
If someone should make you an offer
And that offer satisfys your soul
And that offer satisfys your soul

The things they do, believe in no one else knows
