Makes me wander, makes me wander...
Once you go ahead with no turning back
Now I see my self-waiting for a top
I wanna break free but I feel trapped
A voice inside me saying-"not stop"
Make me wonder if the world is mad,
Friends you lose or friends you don't have,
I wander who out there still believes in God,
I wander lord I wander,
Why the road it's so hurts,
Maybe I'm just too concern,
Maybe these things may my heartburns,
Or maybe I'm a dreamer,
That believes in vision that will never been,
Or maybe I'm just another optimistic soul.
Once you go ahead with no turning back
Now I see my self-waiting for the top,
I wanna break free but I feel trapped,
A voice inside me saying-"don't stop",
Make me wonder if the world is mad,
Friends you lose and the friends you don't have,
I wander who out there still believes in god,
I wander lord I wander why the road it's so hurts.
It's clear different meditations,
Different have opinion, all one race!
Different people, different culture,
Get to the same thing, we all can be relate.
Where there is a bible there'll be men,
Trying to gather as much as they can,
We thanks it I see nothing wrong,
Get up! Get up! Get up! my brother man!
I wanna go ahead with no turning back
Now I see my self-waiting for the top
I wanna break free but I feel trapped
A voice inside me say-"don't stop"
I wander if the world is mad,
Friends you lose and the friends you don't have,
I wander who out there still believes in God,
Lord, oh, I wander why the road it's so hurts
Maybe I'm just too concern
Maybe these things may my heartburns,
Or maybe I'm a dreamer,

That believes in vision that will never been,
Or maybe I'm another optimistic soul.
I wanna go ahead with no turning back
I know I see my self-waiting for the top
I wanna break free but I feel trapped
A voice inside me say-"don't stop".
I wander if the world is mad,
Friends you lose and the friends you don't have
I wander who out there still believes in God
I wander, Lord, I wander why the road it's so hurts...
