Blindsided but you won't walk away,
We all change - you know that i'll stay the same
You've played a new face, a new game,
But still we've all seen better days.

So look around,
Fallen off again,
Hear two sides still you never understand,
There's two sides to every story they say,
But a little bit of heartache won't change.
And it's killing me.

We're untouchable, teen idols,
Working class, heros left along the way.
It's a sign of the times,
the times, they're killing me.
Frustration, Salvation,
Too much destruction coming over me.
It's a sign of the times,
the times, they're killing me.

Redhanded but you won't wash away,
We all change - you know that i'll stay the same
You've played a new face, a new game,
But still we've all seen better days.
