I'm sucked in, i don't know why
I'm in trouble. I wish that I
Had a signal to signify
The weight of your hair tonight.
It's pulling at my shoulder blades.
Wish i could bleach away:
The black on this page,
The look on your face,
The lock on my cage,
and The weight of your stare tonight.
-chorus-
Let's have a conversation
We'll discuss all the things we Keep on saying when there's walls between.
Who knows? My mouth is me.
Engines of alienation.

The things you said
I can't forget
Thought i would, but i haven't yet.
Thought I was tough, but I take it back.
There's a split in my tracks.
It's not polite.
Surprise, surprise.
I couldn't count
On broken ties.
Just like me: philanthropist.
We'll display it in my chest(???)

-chorus-

and i couldnt figure out the bridge if anyone wants to make a correction i would be very thankful.
