"Falling Victim"

We find ourselves in simple ways,
But falling victim to the simple things.
Every question brings,
Every answer makes another,
And coming clean we're finding one another.

We're falling to our knees.
Breaking pieces left from these,
Falling victims - Falling down,
We find ourselves alone in every crowd.

Let the rest linger,
'Til i fall from the bottom,
Falling down my skates today.

We find ourselves in simple ways,
But falling victim to the simple things.
Every question brings,
Every answer makes another,
Welcome to the new day,
New songs left to sing.

We're falling to our knees.
Breaking pieces left from these,
Falling victims - Falling down,
We find ourselves alone in every crowd.

Find ourselves in simple ways.
Falling victim to the thing simple things
Every question brings,
Every answer makes another,
Come and claim,
find it in one another.
I let the rest linger.
I fell from the bottom.
Falling down my skates today.

We're falling to our knees.
Breaking pieces left from these,
Falling victims - Falling down,
We find ourselves alone in every crowd.

Alone in every crowd.
