She comes home at 5: 30
And though her clothes are never dirty
She'll change them just the same
She likes to keep her name

She's giving it all up for love
She's giving it all up for love
She's giving it all up for love
Giving it all up for love
Up for love, up for love

She's got a tattoo on her tummy
And her mummy plays gin rummy
You might think that's kind of funny
Hey, but she's keeping all the money

She's giving it all up for love
She's giving it all up for love
She's giving it all up for love
Giving it all up for love
Up for love, up for love

She's got a silver armadillo
Underneath her pillow
Some think it's a cupie doll
Hey, but they got such crazy minds

She's giving it all up for love
She's giving it all up for love
She's giving it all up for love
She's giving it all up for love
Up for love, up for love

She's giving it all up for love
She's giving it up for love
She's giving it all up for love
Ooh, she's giving it up, giving it up
Giving it all up for love
She's giving it up for love
Up for love, up for love
