He took your love
but it's still mine He took all the things that I loved best but you still ain't got happiness

Gave you everything girl money can buy He's a real big spender and a generous guy
You gave up on me, can't understand Deep down inside girl, I'm still the man

Chorus

(He don't know what to do for you) He don't know
(He don't know what to do for you) He don't know
(He don't know what to do for you) But I do you know I do... yeah

I passed your house today
I took it real hard
There was a brand new Mercedes Parked right in front of your yard He buys you things from A to Z but no one, no one can satisfy you like me

(He don't know what to do for you) He don't know (He don't know what to do for you) He don't know like I know

(He don't know what to do for you) But I do
you know I do

You had the world but you wanted more but nothin' can be better than what you had before But you still got a chance to let him go

Gave you all of the best love one man can give (check it out) Girl, you're gonna feel it just as long as I live Gave you all the love he could but don't you know that I spoiled you too good

(He don't know what to do for you) He don't know
(He don't know what to do for you) He will never know (He don't know what to do for you) and I do
you know I do
(He don't know what to do for you) He don't know what to do
(He don't know what to do for you) for a girl like you
(He don't know what to do for you) he will never know never never know like I know.
