As I look into your eyes
That look breaks the ice
Your smile reveals desire

As you throw off all your fears
The bareness now so near
The heat has light the flame

Many hills upon us, many seeds to sow
Hold on to this moment, don't let it get lost
Colors change and whisper, as light draws all your skin
Let your hands discover this new reality

Our hearts now tick and the clock slowly starts to run
I think it's time for the dance

Now your body starts to shiver
The pleasures of the clever
A chilling night of joy

Many hills upon us, many seeds to sow
Hold on to this moment, don't let it get lost
Colors change and whisper, as light draws all your skin
Let your hands discover this new reality

Our hearts now tick and the clock slowly starts to run
I think it's time for the dance
The dance for you and me

Take my hand and feel what you haven't felt before
I just want you to show the other side
Hold me close if you wanna go there again
The time to understand has come for you
Don't let it go...

You got a decision to take tonight (and)
You got to be strong (and) you got to fight (and)
You got a decision to take tonight (and)
You got to be strong (and) you got to fight (and)
You got a decision to take tonight
You got a decision, be strong tonight

You got a decision, you got to fight
