The wind blows
Gonna take a field trip,
Gonna let our minds slip,
Gonna be warm
A new start
A life behind the windshield
Travel by our own wheels,
Head over heels
And we'll go with the sun

Through all the bliss and all the wonders
I've got my eyes set on you
But if there's something to be
I'll be something
You will be something

The wind blows,
Gonna take you outdoors,
Gonna see the places we've never seen
The sun shows
A day in life of ease goes
Travel with the morning in our eyes
You're the summer in my skies

Through all the bliss and all the wonders
I've got my eyes set on you
But if there's something to be
I'll be something
You will be something

Days of bliss and days of wonders
Those we only slept through
Still if there's something to be
I'll be that something
You will be something
