Tie you up in a kind of logic
Don't think you can get away
It's a case of applied mathematics
Just as sure as night follows day
Ain't no use putting up resistance
All the static's too high for that Saw you coming up in the distance Gonna get you as sure as Endless day follows endless night you're gonna
Have to stay and it'll be alright as long as Endless day follows endless night we're gonna do alright

Got a feeling you're on my wavelength
You're tuned in the receptions fine
Dropping out with you would be crazy
You're just the company to unwind
I can see no escape for you dear
Lock you up throw away the key
I'll make sure that you're safe and sound dear
Making love to me through the
Endless day follows endless night you're gonna
Have to stay and it'll be alright as long as Endless day follows endless night we're gonna do
alright

Endless day endless night x 3

Got a feeling you're on my wavelength
You're tuned in the receptions fine
Dropping out with you would be crazy
You're just the company to unwind
I can see no escape for you dear
Keep you shackled and lose the keys
I'll make sure that you're safe and sound dear
Making love to me through the
Endless day follows endless night you're gonna
Have to stay and it'll be alright as long as Endless day follows endless night we're gonna do
alright

Endless day endless night x 4
