Keeping out of trouble, moving on the double
Got a feeling that this tunnels got an ending soon
Feel like I've been hanging on a lead balloon

Standing to attention, sitting by the engine
Got to get a uniform to go with the good news
Better even buy some brand new shoes

I just got off a long gone dead train

I've been seeing double, slipping in the rubble
Got a ticket left to use and I'm not wasting it
I like life and I like tasting it

I just got off a long, long dead train
I just got off a long gone dead train

Some days there's some love to be found
Some nights you gotta sleep on the ground
But don't worry, there's no hurry

Some days there's a lot to be lost
Some days the [Incomprehensible] already tossed
But don't worry, there's no hurry
I said there's no hurry

Find a little lady, someone who says maybe
And get some loving for yourself and get it right away
Just make sure you suffer no delay

I just got off a long gone dead train

Some days there's some love to be found
Some nights you gotta sleep on the ground
But don't worry, there's no hurry

Some days there's a lot to be lost
Some days the bridge is already crossed
But don't worry, there's no hurry
