Disturbing thoughts running through your head
I guess they're back again
A new delusion stimulates the brain
And it drives you insane
Tortured souls are waiting
Such a cruel demise
But there'll always be a price to pay
For the ultimate high

How long can you take it
So hot when your playing with fire
Bow down to the master
How long can you preach to the choir

Psychotic visions of a cruel game
I guess its back again
A burning cross in a burning heart
That can't escape the flames
Scenes of chaos play out
Brings this nightmare to life
But there'll always be a price to pay
For the ultimate high

How long can you take it
So hot when your playing with fire
Bow down to the master
How long can you preach to the choir

Yearrrrrrr!

How long can you take it
So hot when your playing with fire
Bow down to the master
How long can you preach to the choir

How long can you take it
So hot when your playing with fire
Bow down to the master
How long can you preach to the choir
