If I look familiar, it's only what you see It's your perception, what I used to be
So saturated, I wear a different face
I'm so frustrated with the human race

No, you can't live for me, don't want your sympathy
The cut's too deep you see, I got your remedy

Do you really wanna go there with me?
Don't you know it's really something to see?
Do you really wanna go there with me?
Don't you know it's really something to see

Here comes the change so let's open the door
I'm not the same anymore

Don't want your conversation, don't need no
aggravation
That's when I knew I had my revelation
Don't need no demonstration, I'm in my transformation
That's when I knew I had my revelation

Am I a stranger? Am I a friend?
Do you think you know me, you better look again
Feel so infected with all the lies
Get resurrected, open up your eyes

I got so much to say
You're gonna hear me anyway
Ain't gonna make no big display
So what's up? Get outta my way

Do you really wanna go there with me?
Don't you know it's really something to see?
Do you really wanna go there with me?
Don't you know it's really something to see?

Here comes the change, so let's open the door
I'm not the same anymore

Don't want no confrontation, don't need no situation
That's when I knew I had my revelation

Don't want no condemnation, I got my inspiration
That's when I knew I had my revelation

Here comes the change, so let's open the door
I'm not the same anymore

Don't want no confrontation, don't need no situation
That's when I knew I had my revelation
Don't want your conversation, don't need no
aggravation
That's when I knew I had my revelation
