They say we're young and we don't know,
The time it takes for dreams to die or love to grow.
But when I look into your eyes no-one can see,
The things that make me live for you and you for me,
for me.
We climbed a mountain, touched the sky.
And never once did we look back and wonder why.

You're the reason I keep going,
Ya give me love that keeps on growing,
And my heart believes in you, ooh...

(CHORUS:)

Ooh, ooh, our love will be there,
Ooh, ooh, the love that we share,
And when the day is done,
You'll be the one.

And if you wanted to break free, I would be the one to say "come to me".
And if I needed time to figure out my life,
I would count on you to say "It's gonna be alright".

Coz you're the reason for tomorrow,
The greatest feeling I know
I will always be with you.

(CHORUS)
