I want to get stronger
Yes, I'm a gentle man
Down waves and tiny arms
And a tiny voice that never said things quite right

And here's a funny place to be now
Things always come my way
The sky is not so green
As it seems, as it seems

Two made a life of background noise
Your voice just killing time
And this one fails to tell it all
My life, it's slowed down to a crawl

My love songs suck, yours make me cry
The world beneath you wonders why
Your wings never touch the ground
No matter how softly they seem

[Incomprehensible]

My love songs suck, yours make me cry
The world beneath you wonders why
I know I did, I know I do
Can't you say, "I miss you too?"

Just shut your eyes, love me too
Shut your eyes, love me too
Shut your eyes, love me too
Shut your eyes, love me too
