where does love go when you're not in love how does it feel when nobody wants it tell me does it float around like a little lost cloud when the heart is not its home what does love do when its not being used feeling like it just don't belong tell me, is it lying awake in the middle of the night just thinking 'bout what went wrong
'cause when i look in your eyes it's just not there
when i hunger for affection
the cupboard is bear
i don't know why i keep holdin' on when love's got the message and it's already gone why am i always the last to know tell me, why is it always me, alone still dancing when the party's over why am i always the last to see just the fool who believes your still in-love with me even love can see it's over but i'm always the last to know.

what do i do till i'm back on my feet do i hang around and try to pretend that i'm really over you and it won't take long

'till it's my turn again

'cause when i look in your eyes
the cupboard is bear

but I'm always the last to know.

The next time I fall I'll be taking my time To find out if her heart is mine

but I'm always the last to know.
