(Some may say it's a mystery
Some may say it's a science
But I believe that somewhere between
Desire and the senses
The truth may lie)
I'll give you love unconditional
We have love unconditional

I won't try explaining the things you do to me
Admit it girl - the truth is plain to see
I gotta have your decision so don't give me the party line
Face the facts, it's make your mind up time

So give your heart permission
For gettin' here with me
Baby remember right now
If you just surrender
Embrace your destiny

I'll give you love unconditional
It's a heart and soul reunion
That's the way it's meant to be
We have love unconditional
It's a two-way love communion
So set your spirits free

What's the point in pretending - I don't want nobody else
I can't lie, I can't fool myself
No time for hesitation - I gotta make you hear somehow

The chance is here, I know the time is now

So give your heart permission
For gettin' here with me
Baby remember right now
If you just surrender
Embrace your destiny

I'll give you love unconditional
It's a heart and soul reunion

That's the way it's meant to be
We have love unconditional
It's a two-way love communion
So set your spirits free

(Some may say it's a mystery
Some may say it's a science
But I believe that somewhere between
Desire and the senses
The truth may lie)

I'll give you love unconditional
It's a heart and soul reunion
That's the way it's meant to be
We have love unconditional
It's a two-way love communion
So set your spirits free

(Every night, every minute of the day
Every thought and everything you say
Every time you walk away I'm with you)
