Oh, yeah-yeah
(aahhh)

There's something about you
What could it be?
I finally found my destiny
Now here you are within my reach

How did I miss you?
(how did i miss you)
When you were out there all the time
It took this moment
To make me realise

Once in a lifetime
You find your reason for living
You find the one who makes your every dream come true
(find the one who makes your dreams come true)
Though I could search the world forever
Noone else would do
'cause once in a lifetime you find someone like you
(once in a lifetime)

I waited for so long
(so long)
Thinking this cannot be the light
???
Spinning the wheels
(alone in the crowd)
All alone in the crowd

I went through the motions
(went through the motions)
And then out of heaven you appeared
(then out of heaven)
What was wrong
It suddenly is right
Once in a lifetime
You find your reason for living
You find the one who makes your every dream come true

(find the one who makes your dreams come true)
Though I could search the world forever
Noone else would do
'cause once in a lifetime you find someone like you

(find someone like you)

A heart that waits on love can grow so weary (don't you know a heart can grow so -)
And that doesn't matter anymore
When you find the love you're waiting for

Once in a lifetime
You find your reason for living
You find the one who makes your every dream come true
(oh you make it come true)
(find the one who makes your dreams come true)
Though I could search the world forever
Noone else would do
'cause once in a lifetime you find someone like you

'cause once in a lifetime you find someone, someone like you
