Long road ahead and ride on forever
The dusty red can clear away your mind
There's no need for better
Now she's there when all of my thoughts are gone
The scent of her hair can carry me along
There's no need for better

Now, paperback fairytales are nothing compared to falling for her
How can I stand and watch her walk away

When she's taken my heart
She's taken my soul
And without my noticing she's taken my words
(Ooh)

Road goes on and time teaches everyone
Once love's gone it tears a piece inside
So how can I leave her?

(Ooh) Paperback fairytales are nothing compared to falling for her
I'll never turn and let her walk away
(She's taken everything)

She's taken my heart
She's taken my soul
And without my noticing she's taken my words

She's taken my time
(She's taken my time)
She's touched me deep inside
(She's touched me deep inside)
And without my noticing she's taken my words

I cherish the moment I look in her eyes
Time on my hands seems to pass like the skies
I know her heart isn't mine
And she's taken over

Ooohh, Aaahh

She, she's taken my heart
She's taken my soul
Taken my words
(She's taken everything)

When she's taken my heart
(She's taken my heart away)
She's taken my soul
(Oh my soul)
And without my noticing she's taken my words

She's taken my time
(She's taken my time)
She's touched me deep inside
(She's taken my soul)
And without my noticing (yeah-yeah)

(She's taken my heart away)
She's taken my heart
(She's taken everything)
She's taken my soul
(Somewhere deep inside I know)
Without my noticing she's taken my words

She's taken my time
(She's taken my time)
She's touched me deep inside
(She's touched me deep inside)
And without my noticing she's taken my words away

[ad lib chorus to fade]
