Candlelight, it burns my eyes,
Hear my call when I'm slipping through the times of love,
An' times of war, loneliness has been a friend of mine.
It's not your voice that calls me, calls me...

[Chorus:]

" Feel my dreams, like leaves from the trees
I have seen it all before in the fire.
Cold of the night, fades away all the light,
But I'm still sleeping here in the fire..."

Moonlight, is on my side,
A child of night I am the lonely one who loves,
Who knows the truth, a clairvoyant of the new millennium.
It's not your voice that calls me, calls me...

[Chorus]

[Solo]
