"Run Away"

As I sat alone that night
Something dived in to my mind
Ive always been a dreamer
When I lay down I close my eyes
I sense you nearbut you dont mind
I need to keep you safe and awake

My heart is on the run
Youre playin tricks with my mind
I turn to you
Youre close to me
Knowing youll never know

Run away, runaway
Cant you see theres a world on fire
Run away, runaway
That stranger was the one I desire

Wasted nights and wasted days
Always something more to say
But wheres the fire
Burning in our hearts
Hard to say were said and done
But love is like a loaded gun
The waters getting higher all the time
