I am ruined I feel nothing I can't remember where I begin and you end Your breath became mine and my heart it beats your blood
Two headed beast with four green eyes we are one mind
Could be like that dog caught in a trap Could I be like that dog chews off his limbs just to feel free again
You left me wounded but I feel nothing in my head Your voice tells me my thoughts and my mouth speaks your words
I only see what you want me to Two headed beast w/four green eyes
We are one mind Am I like that dog, left for dead and ruined I am like that dog.
Let me feel, let me feel again
Just like a pretty picture I am dead on the inside Starving for your attention and gasping for my breath tried to separate before Nearly bled to death I am wasted this is wasted breath (Repeat first verse)
