"Oh! Meat Is Fun"

Dancing chickens try to sell themselves
And tuna vying to be canned Hamburgers grow on trees, and your children's best friend
Is a red-haired, white-faced man

Oh! Meat is fun!
There's a million smiles in my hot-dog bun!
Ignore those screams, it was just a bad dream!
Meat is fun for everyone!

Like a party with everyone invited 10, 000 animals to a she'd Hung upside-down from hooks, their throats cut clean across
Their lives are slowly bled

Nowhere left to run
There's a little McDonald's in everyone Can you hear those screams? Wake up from your dreams
Your lies are all coming undone.
They've come undone
Your lies are slowly all coming undone.
