One, two, who the hell are you?

It was the hottest night in town surely for years
They were hookin' up the TV's outside the bars
Sweet mahoo

Moon hit my eye like a big ol' scarlet pie
And I'm all away with a nifty lil' number like you
Yeah, I'm all away with a nifty lil' number like you

Now how did you smile when you were five?
What trouble did you get your good own-self into at night?
Hoo

How did you flirt in that debutant skirt?
What a catch I dream, a nifty lil' number like you
I'm all away with a nifty lil' number like you

Her hair falls out behind just like a long black limousine,
Teasing with the life, you know this boy could only dream
Now I got a mosaic life with nothing to decide

I'm all away with a nifty lil' number like you
I wanna be on down with a nifty lil' number like you

Now my back's all broke and my brain's turned to sour mash, yeah
From who stole the soul and bagged that greasy cash
But as soon as I hear that telecast my reds all turn to blue

And I'm all away with a nifty lil' number like you Yeah I'm gonna lay on down with a nifty lil' number like you

Her hair falls out behind just like a long black limousine
Teasing all my life, you know this boy could only dream
Now I got a mosaic life with nothing to decide

I'm all away with a nifty lil' number like you
I'm all away with a nifty lil' number like you

You know it's killin' me sweet
But what'm I gonna do about it?
You know it's killin' me sweet
But what'm I gonna do without it?

That sweet bourbon and dry
Sit on down, get your toe wet
Bite my lip and I'll make you my wife

Her hair falls out behind just like a long black limousine
Teasing all my life, you know this boy could only dream
Now I got a mosaic life with nothing to decide
With nothing to decide, with nothing to decide

Falls out behind just like a long black limousine,
Teasing all my life, You know this boy could only dream
No shit Sherlock, she makes my shingles rock

I'm all away with a nifty lil' number like you
I'm wanna lay on down with a nifty lil' number like you

I'm gonna bed on down with a nifty lil' number like Oh damn, nifty lil' number like
Bed on down with a nifty lil' number like you
