Sing this with me now, try to harmonize this
Sing this with me now, try to understand
Sing this with me now, try to harmonize this
Sing this with me now, try to understand

A time for the memory spent, do we know?
If the way it was always guarded by the wolves
Stories once told, decides the path you'd go
And the angels that shed their tears would never know

Sing this with me now, try to harmonize this
Sing this with me now, try to understand
Sing this with me now, try to harmonize this
Sing this with me now, try to understand

Make yourself clear to dispose
Of any amount of trials to come your way
So cover yourself, keep your head low
To avoid the crossfire that threatens to turn the night to day

Sing this with me now, try to harmonize this
Sing this with me now, try to understand
Sing this with me now, try to harmonize this
Sing this with me now, try to understand

You heard that we sleep now
You heard that we sleep now

Sing this with me now, try to harmonize this
Sing this with me now, try to understand
Sing this with me now, try to harmonize this
Sing this with me now, try to understand

Sing this with me now, try to harmonize this
Sing this with me now, try to understand

Start singing, start singing
Start singing, start singing
Start singing, start singing
Start singing, start singing
Start singing, start singing

Start singing, start singing
