It's whereabouts that won't cave in
Scenes of violence protect this
In aching heart that will begin
To wrestle with obstruction

And I'd stay for ages, if i could
To wake you
I'd stay for ages, If I could
To wake you

In taking hold to waste within
Coping as best as you can with;
The way it is does not have to be
As long as it stays unwritten

And I'd stay for ages, if i could
To wake you
I'd stay for ages, If I could
To wake you

Speak to me in tongues
And you speak in tongues to me
Speak to me in tongues
And you speak in tongues to me

And I'd stay for ages, if i could
To wake you
And I'd stay for ages, If I could
To wake you

And I'd stay for ages,
And I'd stay for ages to wake you
