what could've happened to take what's become of it choices that he had made moulds to most of it but to hide in the shade will keep the weather out and to crawl into the hole that hides you now he's hidden it all just to cover his tracks sutured what could be described as a fact taken the trail that leads will find you, find you back to the start of it before it will be changed if it's a little weird well then dig in a bit it's more than the sum of all the separate parts suffer the thoughts i had that you will take to heart

fail safe always tends to try and make way while you watch and wait for those to take it on themselves [x2]

i'll find you
