Rest assured I've taken a sacred
And to rest is to soak up a fragrance
And if i'm callous
What does it make you

Wait for december
Justify assailance
Fuels me to calm

And I wish I could always be with you
As I wait for a saviour of now

Why did the material fray
What couldn't be sewn back back in place
My shoulder for you was Always a burden

Wait for december (would you like to be in there)
Justify assailance (would you like to be in there)
Fuels me to calm (would you like to be in there)

And I wish I could always be with you
As I wait for a saviour of now

What's it like to be in there
