

Hundred Year Storm "All This Time"

Visit "All This Time" on MotoLyrics.com

Sleepwalking through forgotten shadows of awakenings
Remembering when I felt alive
Your kisses were like truth as water in my mouth
Speak to me and I'll taste again
It's been so long now
You seem so far away from here...from me
All this time you've been right beside me
Though I can not feel you near
All I need is one look in your eyes
I know I will be alright Coming down the mountain I see the one I love the most
Quietly capturing my heart
And this soul's fire which so violently burns
