She wrote a book of apologies called all you need to know
Over the summer a long cold bitter read
All you need to know
Is that I'm on your side
Oohohohoh when shit goes down
All the years between us count and that's all you need to know
Put a cork in the place she's spilling
That's all you need to know
Now wipe your mouth cause you're done believing
Now it's time to go
But hey I'm on your side
Ohohohoh when shit goes down
Do the years between us?
Who is that man that you've become
She took you down through the moguls
Oh boy you were wrong and that all you need to know
She been working you hard and you need time off
And that's all you need to know
I say go live your life are you living it?
It's all you need to know
She said lets talk it out so your spitting it
Now it's time to go
But hey on I'm on you side
Oohohohoh when shit goes down
Do the years between us
Who is that man that you've become
She took you down through the moguls
Oh boy you were wrong
Got a knack for defending court's where you belong
Who are you man, it's time to go
And that all you need to know
