I was a ferris wheel, in an empty field where nobody goes
Had all the curtains drawn, sitting all alone, feeling like a ghost
I was a broke down heart brake bad in need of
A little of loves electricity
A busted carnival ride in the middle of the night
Then you flipped the switch, you turned on the show

You light me up, like fireworks flying on the fourth of July
You light me up, like the sunshine blazing in the summertime oh every time
You light me up
Baby you light me up

You were the missing piece to my broken dreams, bringing them back to life
You look like a movie star, just the way you are makes me burn inside
Yeah its a dynamite finally burning a match, baby when you look at me like that

You light me up, like fireworks flying on the fourth of July
You light me up, like the sunshine blazing in the summertime oh every time
You light me up
Baby you light me up
Oh you light me up

Like New York City on new years eve
You light me up
All my dark days left when you came to me

Baby you light me up, like fireworks flying on the fourth of july
You light me up, like the sunshine blazing in the summertime, oh every time
You light me up, like the fireworks flying on the fourth of july
You light me up like the sun shine blazing in the summertime, oh every time

You light me up
Baby you light me up
