she said, "I need a ride, and it's not very far"

I told her that I could give her a ride

but I know she wanted more from me

Why did U come here?

You know I'm only gonna break your heart

Why can't U understand?

U don't wanna love me

Girl, I told U from the very start

Why can't U understand?

1 night she called me on the telephone

she said, "it's 2 o'clock, but I don't wanna go home

no, I 'd rather spend the night alone with U."

20 minutes she was at my house

she made her way straight 2 the couch

I said, "you're drunk, girl U better leave now...

or lord knows what we'll do"
