Come on confess your confusion
Spread it around
They trickle down your cheeks tears fall
Like seed on barren ground
Your thoughts are scattered
Like paper everywhere
Tiny pieces of laughter and despair
But you cry true tears of joy
Passion is your weakness
But you feed it everyday
Like a moth to the naked flame
You just can't keep away
You twist the truth, then you turn the other cheek Everybody knows its just salvation that you seek
And you cry true tears of joy
oh you cry true tears of joy
oh yeah
It flickers on your face
I can see it in your eyes
I knew you for a moment
So don't be so surprised
Its only pleasure that you can't resist
But say one word of truth
And I'll see you cry true tears of joy
Oh you cry true tears of joy
Yeah you cry true tears of joy
Oh you cry true tears of joy
Oh yeah
Tears of joy
