First time i met her was at bible study
It started then, now heidi hates me
She's leavin' the room every time we play a show
And every time she does it, i just wanna know, oh why?

Heidi hates me so
Heidi hates me so-o-o-o
Heidi hates me oh
Heidi heidi ho

Could it be 'cause i bought your boyfriend's bike
Or that it took a year, now it's alright
Ya talk bad about the band every chance ya get
And all i wanna know is when you're gonna quit, oh-oh

Saw her at the sunshine house
She didn't crack a smile
Extended her my hand
But she kept walkin' down the aisle
