Met her at the squirtgun show
Punk girl with frizzy hair
She was such an imbecile
And thought her height wasn't fair

She don't care what we say
She won't listen, no way
Whe wants the band to just shut up and play

Jackie o, jackie is an atheist
Jackie says she won't change her mind
Jackie o, jackie is an atheist
Just give her some time

She drops by every saturday
And calls cliff every night
She tags along and sings our songs
And gets every word right

She's such a cool young girl
But sometimes i just don't know
If what she believes is real
Or she's too scared to just let go
