I used to be dependent on a love that was only rented For a small amount of time just to mess up my mind on you

Oh a girl like you is so priceless to a guy so indecisive Makes me wanna lose my mind 'cause i wasted my time on you

Oh you are the girl
That i thought i loved
But now i'm oh so sure Oh oh (oh oh) alright (alright) i'm alright with out you baby
Alright (alright) alright (alright) i'm alright with out you

I ran around in circles jumping over all your hurdles
On the chance of taking time to settle down my mind on you Oh a girl like you is so priceless to a guy who (?) He's messed up in the mind 'cause he wasted his time
on you
