

Hurts To Purr "Fall Apart"

Visit "Fall Apart" on MotoLyrics.com

Pressing my faith to the roof of my mouth
Never thought I was meant for the south
Climbed out I came look what gold I have found
Limited cities can't drown

What if I let this all fall apart?
What if I let this all fall apart?
What if I let this all
Fall
Apart?

Linus Manhattan I'm dreaming of you
Pushing my vice through
What about Paris, the lure of the Louvre?
My fingers in one pie would do

What if I let this all fall apart?
What if I let this all fall apart?
What if I let this all
Fall
Apart?

What if I just go be no one?
Could you try and not get so much work done?
Sometimes I've just had enough
Had enough
Had enough
Had enough
Had enough
I fall apart
I fall apart
I fall apart
