Searching for the truth
But all I ever find is lies
Trying to find identity
But I just find a disguise

Looking at the nightmare
When I try to see the dream
Finding a reality
As perfect as it seems

Somewhere the dirt is washed down with the rain
Somewhere there's happiness instead of pain
Somewhere satisfaction has no name
Somewhere I can be the same

Looking down on everything
It seems a total bore
Missing all the people
That I've never met before

Trying to find an unknown
Something I consider best
I don't know if I'll find it
But until then I'll be depressed

Somewhere the dirt is washed down with the rain
Somewhere there's happiness instead of pain
Somewhere satisfaction has no name
Somewhere I can be the same

Somewhere the dirt is washed down with the rain
Somewhere there's happiness instead of pain
Somewhere satisfaction has no name
Somewhere I can be the same

Somewhere
Somewhere
Somewhere
Somewhere
