Looking outside my window
All I see is gray
I'm watching the clouds roll by every day

And we make a reservation
You say you'll be on time
I say, "I might be a little late"

Well, I pull it together and brush my teeth
And comb my hair
I stop to think and I can see you there

I think of the times you've waited
Well, just for me to care
I care about you

Checking the clock inside
The room we call our own
I see that I'm late, I should be going

Hop on a local transit
Spending all my change
Oh, I can still hear the telephone

Well, I wanna go back but I'm halfway to
The place where we will meet
And I'm half dead on my feet

And once I get there
I see every thing's the same
Here comes the rain

You left me standing

I should have guessed that you'd stand me up
Why did I even go now
And I guess it goes to show

The snow may well thaw out
But it goes right down the drain

You left me standing in the rain
You left me standing in the rain
You left me standing in the rain
Oh, I know now

You left me standing in the rain
You left me standing in the rain, oh now
You left me standing in the rain

Oh, why oh, why oh, why did I even go now
Now, now, now, now, now, now
Now, now, now, oh, I know now

You left me standing in the rain, oh now
You left me standing in the rain
Oh, now I know
