Panhandle, pedal faster
Playing card, listen master
Pointed gun, aim to please
No one talking, no one sees

Take a stand and collect
Oh, images and imageless
Think in rhymes every time
Someone was a friend of mine

A visionary in a cage, Londonderry
A visionary, foggiest notion, visionary
A visionary
Strip away the silver and the gold

With torn up stories in your cage
Never time to be a sage
You're so sublime
Growing old before your time

A visionary in a cage, Londonderry
A visionary, foggiest notion, visionary
A visionary
Strip away the silver and the gold

A visionary, Londonderry
A visionary, foggiest notion, visionary

A visionary
A visionary
A visionary
A visionary
