The broken chains
The severed links
Between my effect
And my realisation

My input transformed
Received and distorted
Unstably react
In my new found dimension

Flesh of grey now free
Now free

Might I never return

From this altered place
Don't know what its like
To be anywhere but here

I exist in two places at once
I can see only one
When you see me in both
Unless, your also in my world

Flesh of grey now free
Now free
