Visit "World Of Ruin" on MotoLyrics.com

The last day begins
With the rising of the sun
Our hands have tied a knot
Which cannot be undone
We have taken more
Then there was to give
Our mother now decides
Whether we shall live

We shall live

The cries of forgiveness

Now fall on deaf ears
Whats done is done
And no-one ever hears
Our sun is now setting
Never to return
Taken from this place
For nothing did we learn

Did we learn

The last day begins
With the rising of the sun
