So this is over
you're feeling sober
You have no excuses
'cause you're fucking useless
Every day is all the same
Where you play that fucking game
Every thing you've said and done
Things will never be the same again
So this is over
It's not like October
When I didn't bother
That you liked another

Every day is all the same
Where you play that fucking game
Every thing you've said and done
Things will never be the same again
So this is over
So this is over
So this is over
so this is over

Every day is all the same
Where you play that fucking game
Every thing you've said and done
Things will never be the same again
