Visit "Confession" on MotoLyrics.com

Reach inside and see what's real
Intoxications what you feel
There's no truth in who you blame
And those who claim to be insane
Confession is the breakup
You hide behind the makeup
Come to reality and see

CHORUS

Let your dreams fly you high
You gotta be the one to try
You can win or you can lose
You've gotta be the one to choose

You let what's in you bring you down
Soul destructions what you've found
You hide inside a life of ease
And take each day the way you please
Confession is the breakup
You hide behind the makeup
Come to reality and see

BRIDGE

Confession is the breakup
You hide behind the makeup
Come to reality and see
