"Sand"

I've hid treasures of millions
Through a brutal illusion
I've entombed great leaders
From the vandal intruders
I've swallowed up your city
And it's wicked doings
I have forged on a fire
For mans deepest desires
I am the sand
Your desire
I am the sand
Hiding liar
You thought you'd found your millions
Moved by greedy intensions
You came in only taking
You go out as your breaking
I am the sand
Your desire
I am the sand
Hiding liar
I am the sand
Your desire
I am the sand
Hiding liar
