I feel your eyes
As they whisper to me
Familiar stranger in the dark
Completely blind
To a love that comes so free
Pulling at the strings of my heart
Your words they breathe
With a fire all their own
Right through my mind to my heart
My truth has found me
In a world of disbelief
Through this love from the start
Here we are two worlds apart
Reaching through the darkness
Just to, just to be apart
I can feel your love
As you whisper to me
Just to be apart
I can feel your love
You're all I see - Oh whisper
Through my life

I've had visions of you
And all the hope from the start
Let down by deceptions of the truth
I need the love of your heart
Here we are, no dream to far
Push away the darkness
Just to, just to be apart
I can feel your love
As you whisper to me
Just to be apart
I can feel your love
You're all I see - Oh whisper
Here we are in each others arms
Never to surrender
Always, always to be apart
I can feel your love
As you whisper to me
Just to be apart
I can feel your love
You're all I see - Oh whisper
