

Hymn From Above "Vengeance"

Visit "Vengeance" on MotoLyrics.com

Tired of this, endless, sadness thinking of this,
For to long now, for to long now this is it, this is it.
Cover with your blood I watch you fall asleep,
I watch you fall asleep, I hope you wake up.
I can see your face, under that red blanket I can see in you,

Under that red blanket I hope you regret.
My heart has bled 1000 times, more than you could.
I waited to long for this.
Taste every moment of that.
Vengeance, vengeance.
That moment is priceless.
Priceless.
