Your brain is sexy, it's obvious
From the way you think of me Your eyes are sexy, it's clear From the way you stare at me

I feel like being imprisoned in your love

Your nose is sexy, it's obvious from the way you kiss my cheek Your lips are sexy, it's proven by the way you say my name

You are the sexiest God's creature ever created, the sexiest You are the only one that can keep me screaming

Your soul is sexy, it is proven from the way you embrace my heart/ soul Your "heart" the heart as a body organ is sexy, it is obvious from the way you express your jealousy to me

You are the sexiest God's creature
The sexiest, very sexy you are the sexiest, the sweetest God's creature alive in this world

You're sexiest God's creature in the world
