Season

By: Hyoutei Cast D13

Hey, do you remember?
Do youÂ... Do you remember?
That day in spring when we first met,
Cherry blossoms colored the passing time in pink,
Everything was filled with a brand new scent, wasn't it?

We looked at each other's eyes and said a shy hello,
In the sky we looked up,
There was an airplane track heading toward the future,

Hey, do you remember?
Do youÂ... Do you remember?
That summer day we fought like no tomorrow,
Burning sun, trees deepening it's color,
We fought everyday and rewrote our limits.

Connecting our hearts, souls become one,
The sweat on your forehead accents the smile,
Sparkling smile, you're shining brightly.

Many things happen in life,
Everyday becomes yesterday,
But I'd become the brand new tomorrow with you,
We're growing little by little,
Through various experienceÂ...
Our bond gets stronger every time we overcome the
hardship
The word that I want to tell you now,
Is the word we both already know,
It isÂ...

Hey, do you remember?
Do youÂ... Do you remember?
The fall day we quarreled about the difference in our opinion,
The breeze that cools down our warm bodies,
A leaf falls down sadly in sepia-toned wind.

Awkward atmosphere, uncomfortable situation,

We can't help it, we are too pure,
Let's have a fight, we're friends you know.

Hey, do you remember?
Do youÂ... Do you remember?
That winter day I was feeling depressed and frustrated,
We walked quietly in the freezing cold city,
Only your warmth can keep me warm.

It's so tough, though, it isn't as hard that it would make you cry,
When at time like this, just say nothing and
Connect our hearts, it's all going to be okayÂ...

Many things happen in life,
Everyday becomes yesterday,
But I'd become the brand new tomorrow with you,
We're growing little by little,
Through various experienceÂ...
Our bond gets stronger every time we overcome the
hardship
The word that I want to tell you now,
Is the word we both already know,
It isÂ...

Then again, it's Spring,
The season will change
